

7.3.1. Institutional Distinctiveness

Response:

- The college focuses towards the education and development of the socially and economically weaker sections of society and particular in rural area.
- The college is surrounded by an underprivileged and middle-class habitation. The college follows first come first served admission policy. This policy ensures that the students residing in the vicinity of the college and the first-generation learners are accommodated.
- As many students come from rural areas, it becomes imperative to offer English Language, personality development, confidence building activities and bridge courses to ensure their growth.
- The college organizes different types of activities and rewards the efforts of the students through prizes for the activities thus building the confidence of the students.
- The college informs students about the availability of GOI scholarship schemes. The teachers contribute to poor fund, which is utilized to sponsor the education of needy and deserving students
- As many of the students are first generation learners, the college has to involve the parents in their growth, progress and achievement.
- Regular parent's teachers' meetings are organized to inform the parents about the progress of the students.
